

Argument Letter

This unit, we are talking about when it is right to take a stand. Using the argument writing skills you are learning about in class, you are going to take a stand by writing a letter to an authority figure about something important that you want to change. You will use the five-part argument format to compose your letter. You may write to any of the following:

- Government leader
- Author
- Business
- Parent
- Sports figure
- Entertainer
- Other (must be approved)

Who I'm writing to:

An important thing I want to change:

You will write each part of your essay during class over the next few weeks. If you don't finish during class, or if you are absent, you'll need to work on your letter at home. We will be mailing your letter, so you'll want to make sure that is well-organized and grammatically correct.

Due Dates

Rough draft: November 12 (A day) and November 13 (B day)

Polished letter (ready to mail): November 14 (A day) and November 15 (B day)
